

The Scottish Recovery Work Plan 2013/14 is building on key lessons and experiences of the delivery of our 2012/13 work plan. We took direct feedback from all our campaign partners, from those who benefited from recovery college and work force development workshops. As a team we explored the context in which we are delivering the 2013/14 work plan and how we make our unique contribution to growing recovery in Scotland.

SRC standing outcome 1: We increased the number and range of post treatment independent recovery support groups and communities.

Links directly to NPF Outcomes: We have strong resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others. We live longer, healthier lives.

'SRC Recovery Asset register' will be comprised of individuals in recovery willing to make an active contribution to developing recovery in Scotland. It will include also treatment providers and allies, who may not have a personal lived experience of recovery from addiction but who are passionate and knowledgeable about areas of recovery practice.

What will these assets do?

They will contribute expertise to the shared learning events, share practice and be willing to take on some of the recovery development work on behalf of the SRC. These assets will not normally be paid for their work.

SRC Impact Survey 2014

The SRC will undertake an impact survey with all the ADP's in Scotland and with every Recovery support group that has been helped by SRC interventions. The survey will involve questionnaire, focus groups and case studies to help us understand if and how we are helping develop local and national recovery in Scotland.

SRC Monitoring Cycle

The SRC will monitor against the indicators set at every quarterly board meeting. The Scottish Government will monitor at six month and year end levels.

SRC Feedback Loops

The SRC communications strategy will be updated for 2013/14 and presented to the SRC Board for approval. It will include a more detailed plan of how we intend to further grow our online and in person responsiveness to recovery developments and engagement with the public on recovery. In this our use of survey monkey, SRC website and relationship management will be outlined.
